When you are creating an event, one of the steps is to create impact questions.

You will need to enter a label (or title of question) and help text (optional). You can decide whether the question will be required or optional for people to answer. You also have to choose the answer type (single or many).

There are many types of questions you can create.